

RULE 1915.4-3      NON-APPEARANCE AT CUSTODY CONFERENCE BEFORE A CUSTODY CONFERENCE OFFICER

If the Plaintiff/Petitioner or the Defendant/Respondent fails to appear, without proper cause shown, at a Conference before a Custody Conference Officer, and the Custody Conference Officer is satisfied that proper notice of the Order scheduling the conference has been served on or provided to that party, the Custody Conference Officer shall refer the matter to the Court for a contempt hearing which can result in the imposition of sanctions including fines, attorney fees and costs. Failure to appear may also result in an interim order being entered.
